

Roger -

I want to thank you so much for helping me out with all of this. You don't know how much this means to me. I would be lost without your help and support. I hope that one day I will be able to make it up to you. God puts everyone in your life for a purpose - and I am so glad that he put you in mine.

Love,